

INFORMATION FOR MEMBERS OF RECIPROCAL YACHT CLUBS

Club House:

Coronado Yacht Club is located at 1631 Strand Way, Coronado, California, 92118. Our web site, <http://coronadoyc.org/>, provides a full range of information about the Club, its activities, and directions to the Club by land and water. For telephone contact, the office telephone number is (619) 435-1848. Our office email address is staff@coronadoyc.org. We have a bar, restaurant, snack bar, restrooms, and showers. Block and cube ice is available during office hours. There is a barbecue area, with a large gas barbecue for member and guest use. Washers and dryers are located in the clubhouse, and are open during business hours. Wireless internet access is available throughout the clubhouse area and there is a computer room with computers and printer for member and guest use. Hours of operation vary by season and are available on the web site. The restrooms and showers are available to reciprocal guests 24-hours per day.

Dock Facilities:

Each slip includes one 120V, 30 Amp shore power receptacle and water. There are pump-out facilities at the adjacent City of Coronado's Glorietta Bay Marina. The nearest fuel dock is approximately five nautical miles away, at San Diego's Harbor Island. Propane fills are available at the fuel dock. Trash receptacles are located at intervals on each dock. Ample dock carts are available on each dock. A public anchoring area is located approximately 50 yards from our docks. If a guest slip is not available during your visit, you can obtain a 72 hour anchoring permit for this area from the San Diego Harbor Police Mooring Office, at (619) 686-6227.

City of Coronado:

Coronado Yacht Club is located in the city of Coronado. The City of Coronado web site, www.coronado.ca.us, provides complete directories for businesses, local transportation, churches, medical and dental facilities, and community activities. The main shopping area is approximately four blocks from the Yacht Club.

Rules and Regulations for Reciprocal Guests:

Reciprocal guest yachts are required to fly their yacht club burgee, while at Coronado Yacht Club docks. All guest slip assignments are made by the Dock Master. Your current yacht club membership card is required to gain entrance to our club facilities. A reciprocal yacht club member must accompany any guests, while on the CYC premises. No one under 21 years of age is permitted in the bar. A "family" area is available in the lounge area, where children are welcome. No pets, other than registered service dogs, are permitted in the clubhouse.
